Subject: [REDACTED] immigration request for help

Dear Hillary--

Happy New Year! I feel terrible to ask you for help, but I am stuck and have run out of other options on my path to citizenship.

After you initially sponsored me and I became a permanent resident, I have now applied for citizenship in August 2011. At first, the process moved relatively quickly until early October, but now I am waiting for the interview/testing (the oath usually is administered within a month or two after) and there has been no movement. I am told by Citizenship and Immigration (CIS) caseworkers that it may be at least another 8 months before they get to me, making the total time more than a year (they advertize 6 months total turnaround time).

I have been in touch with staff and case workers, but am told that I just have to wait and see. While I thoroughly enjoy my current job, I cannot wait to start my career at either an agency contributing to policy and operations (have had several offers) or at a federal law enforcement agency. Without exception and regardless of my qualifications, these jobs all require U.S. citizenship, precluding me from accepting a job or even applying for these positions. Especially the special agent jobs all have an age restriction which I am getting close to and I do not want to miss that cutoff by waiting for citizenship.

Would you consider helping me by reaching out to DHS Secretary Napolitano or CIS Director Alejandro Mayorkas who reports to her on my behalf? The ask is to simply consider moving up my applications for review ASAP. My application is complete, straight forward and I have nothing to hide.

Again, I am sorry for bothering -- I just want to serve my country in a more involved capacity and don't want to miss any more opportunities to do so. As always, thanks for everything you have done for me.

Will you stand with Huma? And will you stand against the outrageous lies that Michele Bachmann and her Republican colleagues are peddling?

We at Eleanor's Legacy are standing with Huma Abedin. We just joined the Facebook group I Stand with Huma. And we ask you to join us.

Senator John McCain could not have said it any better: "When anyone, not least a member of Congress, launches specious and degrading attacks against fellow Americans on the basis of nothing more than fear of who they are and ignorance of what they stand for, it defames the spirit of our nation, and we all grow poorer because of it."

Andrew Mitchell said it is "morally right" and also "in our national interest" to help the poorest people in the world

The government is to outline plans to stop direct development aid to 16 countries and freeze the level of assistance given to India.

But there will be more for Bangladesh, Nigeria and Pakistan as aid is "better focused" on the poorest people.

Labour said they believed government policy was "on the right track".

International Development Secretary Andrew Mitchell said aid was being protected from spending cuts because it was in the UK's national interest.

The department's overall £7.8bn budget has been unaffected by the government's deficit cutting measures.

But the UK is expected to stop direct aid to 16 countries, including Russia, China, Vietnam, Serbia and Iraq. Some, such as Vietnam and Bosnia, are seen to have "graduated" out of poverty.

Others are judged to be adequately served by United Nations agencies.

The government says it wants greater transparency and accountability in aid spending, with an emphasis on funding programmes that deliver greater results and which, specifically, help girls and women.

Mr Mitchell told BBC Radio 4's Today programme: "We're ending a culture which has seen large sums of money thrown at problems, and focusing on the results that the British taxpayer can buy.

"This is about value for money, it's about ensuring for every pound we take off hard-pressed taxpayers we really do deliver 100 pence of development value."

Five countries will have their budgets increased substantially - Ethiopia, Bangladesh, Nigeria, the Democratic Republic of Congo and Pakistan.

By 2014, 30% of UK aid is expected to go to war-torn and unstable countries.

Shadow international development secretary Harriet Harman told the BBC Labour welcomed the government's decision to stick with the commitment of spending 0.7% of national income on overseas aid.

'National interest'

"Obviously it's right, as things change, that you review who you give overseas aid money to and how you give it - so I think that's right to do as well. So broadly we think the government are on the right track.

"I know it's difficult when people are feeling the pinch here at home, but we have to remember that with just a very small amount of money we can save lives in the developing world."

David Loyn, the BBC's international development correspondent, said: "The government is keenly aware of its political vulnerability in ring-fencing the international development budget while cutting spending everywhere else except for health, and it wants to ensure that it is getting value for money."

Mr Mitchell was asked on BBC Breakfast about his decision to maintain overseas aid while some charities were suffering funding cuts in the UK.

He said: "We are dealing with a scale of poverty around the world of a completely different order.

"And we do it because it's morally right, it's about our values as a country and as a government, and also because it's in our national interest."

India is currently one of the biggest recipients of UK development aid, and there have been media campaigns in the UK suggesting an economy growing at nearly 10% a year simply does not need British assistance.

But others point out that nearly half a billion people in India - more than in any other country in the world - are still desperately poor.

The government says the new approach will be more effective in cutting poverty, and assist in reaching the Millennium Development Goals by the target date of 2015.

On Saturday, it emerged that the UK is threatening to switch funding away from the UN Food and Agriculture Organization - which focuses on longer-term projects, such as providing seeds and tools for agriculture - unless its performance improves.

Instead, more funding could go to the World Food Programme, which deals with emergency food aid around the globe.

Hey Hillary- heard through the grapevine you're going to be sitting down with a good friend of mine this week for an interview- Abigail Disney. She has been an incredible resource and coach over the last few months as I push forward to finish my film. Her project on women, war, and peace is also incredibly powerful. We now live in a time when it is more dangerous being a civilian in war than it is being a soldier- all the more reason her project is so important. Hope you had a good fourth of July and got my fingers crossed we get to catch up soon. You're deeply missed. xxooz

You should be wheels up by 10:30am from Andrews to be on the safe side. We basically have two things in play -- USGLC speech and Open Government. There is a scenario where you could do both -- 8:15am for Open Government, 9:00am for the speech and leave by 9:45am for Andrews. OR we skip Open Government entirely and just do the speech before wheels up. Would you like to try to save both events or jst do the USGLC speech?

Dear Hillary

I was just waiting until you got home from the longest most amazing trip to thank you for what you did on PNB. It was perfect in Turkey and Indonesia.

What a boost for the whole initiative.

I also just heard that you accepted the invitation to NDI. Cannot thank you enough. We are so proud of what NDI is doing and having you there is the best news

B6

Meanwhile we have forgotten how to make things work in DC. Your statement on the mess here was also great. So welcome home and look forward to catching. Our friendship is unique.

I hope you heard about the great mtg I had w the Turkish PNB chapter. They were enthusiastic and excited about their potential. I mentioned them in my press appearances and to Turkish leaders.

And in Indonesia I was able to say that they would have a PNB chapter too.

So, the word is spreading!

Thank you for your leadership and friendship which mean the world to me! Happy Summer--H

- the commo team had some challenge setting up secure phone because this house has a weird system, not just regular phone lines. So there is a satellite device on your balcony to make the ste work. Not ideal. But alternative is to shut down their phone system and arrange to have a new line installed which all would take time.

If we get second crew and you come home after the dinner, could be wheels down Andrews 1am. I'm sure you can't land in Westhampton in middle of night so either Islip or elsewhere. Is my mtg w Spanta set for 9/8?

I think I should fly to White Plains Thursday night after the POTUS speech to be ready for Friday events in City. And since that's for official events the next day, I'd like to leave from Andrews.

- condolence notes continue to flood in. We will keep working on responses for you to sign when you get back.

[REDACTED]

- on trip, if you are up for dinner tonite, you should go in hotel, there's a casual outdoor place. Willard and dan piccuta are there as is kurt tong and they have the night open. We planned for larger pre-brief for tomorrow morning to go through everything.

B6

- also, we are going to add a meeting this week with reps levin, mcdermott and brady who are in town for apec. You don't really see them elsewhere and they are asking.
- there is quite a lot of sensitivity about looking too lavish in these economic times or looking like we are on vacation. Apparently there was commentary about cannes being over the top. So we are starting to take down things like leis and fancy gifts. nothing that affects you. Just so you know.

We just finished another call with team burma. Think you are good shape.
Reminder you are at the second tier hotel cause the nice hotel owner was problematic.
We talked about doing proper burma pre-brief when you land today. There's a little space in your suite and also a room nearby to accomodate more people.
And dinner best option at the hotel or room service. Their dining hall is small but pleasant. You could maybe have drinks with press.

Few other issues.

As you know they are making a big deal out of the fact that president is hosting lunch since he only does it for heads of state typically. He wants to bring first lady and they want to present gifts.

Also, ethnic minorities started off with women and they got cut and everyone is blaming everyone else about why. We are now working to add back women to meeting.

We just finished another call with team burma. Think you are good shape.

Reminder you are at the second tier hotel cause the nice hotel owner was problematic.

We talked about doing proper burma pre-brief when you land today. There's a little space in your suite and also a room nearby to accomodate more people.

A few things though I hope you are resting today!

- sent both media memo and speech draft for georgetown to oscar yesterday. - when we had discussed 2+2, you thought it was in dc in january. I just got request from eap for korea/japan trilat in dc in jan/feb. I wonder if you were thinking of that since there is an expectation for that to take place in dc jan/feb. Working on date.

- you asked about Tawakkul karman: melanne last heard that she wanted to set up an ngo and spend time in dc. But we don't have a lot more recent information on her.

Subject: Follow-up

From our call this am:

- on lieberman, coordinating with jake and david hale but we are offering a 30 min mtg with official photo for next week.

Waiting to hear what day works for him.

- on G8, we started offering Brits and others the march 14/15th option. Should know soon hopefully.

- on Hina and London, her schedule could be changing. The Pak Parliamentary debate was supposed to start this Fri, and now may not start until next week and may delay everything else. But Cameron is reporting that Zardari is trying to get the debate started asap, and they're still hoping for your mtg to take place on 2/22. Will stay on top of this. Would mean we leave late on the 21st to make this work.

- we are adding netanyahu call for tomorrow afternoon during your office time. I think you already know about this.

- I mentioned [REDACTED] being in town. Turns out he was only around today and didn't work since you left for ny. Ill work with wjc office on his scheduling request.
- on khar, dan f is having dinner with sherry tomorrow and may find out more on pak parliament plans.

- as you saw on schedule, i moved a few things around tomorrow. Most importantly the kissinger meeting is earlier so you can do drinks with mccain. [REDACTED]

- lavrov's limited window is a pain but we will make sure you have enough time.

- no issues with order of aliyev/nalbandian mtgs. Nalbandian asked for mtg after we confirmed aliyev who's timing was inflexible.

- we haven't been able to confirm if rassoul will be at your session [REDACTED]

- if dav insists on seeing you, we held time during mccain session. [REDACTED]

- on drinks, we are talking to mccain about going with mccain, lieberman, graham, collins, tauscher and phil murphy at 6ish. McCain may want more, checking. They have 7:30 mayors dinner. Phil Murphy asked if I could talk to mccain's guy directly which I am doing. McCain really wants to see you.

- as you know ellen tauscher is there so we are including her in things. Same with ivo daalder and bradtke.

- we are doing the best we can [REDACTED] cut schedule as short as possible and moved roma mtg to embassy to get us on plane quicker. I think we can access via internet to watch on individual computers but want to see if we can get for whole plane.

B6

Other issues:

- we are having issues with chicago dinner venues. USSS and DS being pretty strict since we are hosting so we might have to go to cultural center. We looked at all betsys suggestions but none work for what we need.

- on G8, seems on track for april 11 and 12th.

I know there is much uproar about the Quran burnings. But in Saudi, the only proper conservative way to safely dispose of Gods name or book is to burn it. You can't bury it or put it in water because you can't risk someone "stepping" on it. We use to tear off sheets of paper with holy words written on them and burn them in our kitchen. The crime here is that non-Muslims were doing it....

Subject: FOR S

Jeff has initiated notifications on the embassy suspension so we can say we are "in the process".

The rest of this should work. Note that we are not "suspending our relationship."

Two general frames

Q. Will you recognize the opposition?

B5

Q. Do you recognize Qadhafi; why won't you recognize the opposition?

Q. Where do you stand on the No Fly Zone?

B5

Q. But Qadhafi bombed this morning! How can you not be shooting his planes out the sky.

WHAT WE HAVE DONE:

UNSCR

Arms embargo

Asset freezes

Travel bans

Humanitarian action

Outreach to the opposition

Active planning for a range of contingencies

B6
B7(E)
